COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN SOCIETY AND HISTORY an international quarterly

Editorial Committee: L. A. Fallers (Chicago), G. E. von Grunebaum (California), Everett C. Hughes (Brandeis), Edward Shils (Chicago), Eric R. Wolf, Frederick Wyatt, Sylvia L. Thrupp, Editor (all of Michigan), with an international board of consulting editors.

Founded in 1958, this new quarterly is devoted to combining the analytical methods of the social sciences, especially sociology and anthropology, with historical scholarship. Its articles are in this way able to draw comparisons between different societies and civilizations and between different periods of time.

Some articles of special interest to Latin Americanists in the first few volumes:

"International Collaboration in the History of America"

By Silvio Zavala (Vol. I, March 1959)

"The Aztec Aristocracy in Colonial Mexico"

By Charles Gibson (Vol. II, January 1960)

Comparison in companion article:

"The Javanese Nobility under the Dutch"

By Leslie H. Palmier (Vol. II, January 1960)

"The Process of Constitution-making in Latin America"

By Russell H. Fitzgibbon (Vol. III, October 1960)

"Social Typology and Tropical Forest Civilizations"

By Michael D. Coe (Vol. IV, October 1961)

Comparative Studies in Society and History is published in October, January, March and June. Each issue consists of approximately 120 pages. Annual subscriptions are $6.00 (U. S. A.) or the equivalent in other currencies and may be paid through booksellers or sent directly to the publishers:

The Hispanic American Report, which is published monthly by Hispanic American Studies, Stanford University for the Hispanic American Society, provides a careful analysis of developments in Spain, Portugal, and each of the Latin American republics, as well as Puerto Rico and the West Indies. It is based on a wide variety of published and unpublished reports, which are housed in the Hispanic American Archives, a unique depository of information about contemporary Latin America which may be used by qualified members of the Hispanic American Society. Each issue of the Hispanic American Report contains about 60 pages.

Individual subscription including membership in the Hispanic American Society is $6 per annum (regular), $10 (sustaining member), and $25 (patrol). Commercial and institutional subscriptions are $10 per annum, or $25 per annum including the privilege of using the Hispanic American Archives.
